Aakif Reshamwala Topped in MBBS General Medicine Examination

Maharashtra University of Health Sciences (MUHS), Nashik, awarded Akif Reshamwala with a Gold Medal in a convocation ceremony held on 23 February, for securing the Top position in the entire state in General Medicine subject of final year's MBBS examination. Akif has received a total 14 Gold Medals at the college level, during his 5 years journey of medical education. For the first time in the 30 years journey of Rajiv Gandhi Medical College, Thane, a student has registered such a historic achievement, taking notice of which the Thane Municipal Corporation has also expressed its appreciation for this achievement on its website. Instead of being only engaged with his MBBS studies, Akif has been involved in Sports, State & Zonal level Quiz Competitions, writing research Papers. He also held the post of secretary of the student academic council of the college. He excelled in many activities and won many prizes for the college.

Akif has created YouTube and Instagram Channels specifically to guide medical students. He has more than 95 thousand followers. Akif offers study material, informative videos & easy solutions of difficult topics & concepts. He is a co-author along with his father, in compiling a book where students are introduced to simple methods of General Surgery. The book is in the final stages of editing and it will be available for students soon.

Akif said: "I would like to give full credit of my Success to my parents. It is the result of their teaching and hard work, that I am at this position today. During my school time, my father always guided me and explained difficult subjects in an easy way. I was associated with "Fine Touch Madrasah" for ten years, where I learnt & memorized a few verses of Quran. Performing of Salah on time and recitation Holy Quran from the early days of training, has remained till now which brought discipline in my life and played an important role in shaping my personality. Along with Arabic, I also learned Urdu and became fluent in Urdu by reading newspapers since my childhood".

Akif was brought up in the Mumbai Central area. He passed his 10th from Christ Church High School in 2011 with 92% marks and 12th from Jai Hind College with 80% marks. He traveled to Kota, Rajasthan, there he worked hard and in his 2nd attempt, he secured 527 marks. On the basis of that marks, he was admitted to Rajiv Gandhi Government Medical College, Kalwa, Thane, where in his 1st year Akif stood in the 5th position in the State with the 1st rank in the college. Akif currently is preparing for NEET PG, He is also trying for USMLE to seek a Master's in General Medicine abroad.
